

Kiwanis Honors CLC Students

Daniel McCulloch, Sandra Galindo, and Paul Choi

Kiwanis Club of Temple City was pleased to have honored three students from the Community Learning Center at their meeting, January 28, 2003. Pictured with the proud students is teacher Mr. Ron Bridges.

Daniel is 16 years old and is in Mr. Nassif's 6th class. He has an interest in computer games, skateboarding, and basketball. The best things about school are: working at his own pace, the good environment, 3 1/2 hours a day to work on solid subjects. The best thing that ever happened meeting new friends that he has now. If Daniel could change one thing in the world, it would be more jobs for teens. Three personal goals Daniel is striving for are "to graduate, to get better at skateboarding, and to find a good job."

Sandra is 18 years old and is in Mr. Nassif's 6th and Mr. Kingry's class. She has 7 brothers and sisters. Sandra's hobbies are talking on the phone, and shopping. The three best things about school are: being with her friends, getting closer to graduation, and working with math. The best thing that ever happened to Sandra was having good parents. Three personal goals Sandra is striving for are "to graduate, going to college, and being a nurse or secretary."

Paul is 14 years old and is in Mr. Bridges' class. Paul's hobbies are playing games, and spending time with his girlfriend. The three best things about school are: leaning new things each and everyday, keeping myself busy, and recess. If Paul could change one thing, it would be the restrictions for getting a driver's license. If he could build one thing, it would be a place for everyone he loves. Three personal goals Paul is striving for are "to achieve my goals at school, to get back to high school, and to get good grades."
