

Kiwanis Honors Community Learning Center Students Troy Murset, and Jennifer Cobos

Kiwanis Club of Temple City was pleased to have honored two outstanding students from the Community Learning Center at their meeting, December 9, 2003. Pictured with the proud students is teacher, Mr. Rod Kingry, and Principal Dr. Doug Sears.

Troy is 17 years old and is in Mr. Helberg's and Mr. Kingry's class. Troy enjoys playing his guitar, playing hockey, working on his truck, and learning about WWII. The three best things about school are "history, a chance to improve my future, and my friends". The best thing that ever happened to Troy was going to the Community Learning Center. Personal goals Troy is striving for are to be a professional hockey player for the Ducks, to be a mechanic, to further his education, and to graduate from high school. Troy told our club of the various ways that the CLC has turned his life around.

Jennifer is 17 years old and is in Mr. Helberg's and Mr. Kingry's class. Jennifer enjoys going to the beach, having fun with her friends, surfing, and riding dirt bikes in the desert. The best things about school are "my friends, I am able to get a lot of work done without any distractions, and the teachers at CLC". Jennifer said, "the best thing that ever happened to me was when I became an Aunt". Three personal goals Jennifer is striving for are to return to TCHS for the 2nd semester, to get through college, and to gain a career in interior decorating and designing.
