

Kiwanis Honors Longden Students Jason Ng and Grace Wong

Kiwanis Club of Temple City was pleased to have honored two outstanding students from Longden Elementary School at their meeting, November 23, 2004. Pictured with the proud students is their teacher, Miss Kristen Rockenbach who beginning her 1st year teaching at Longden.

Jason is 11 years old and has an older brother. Jason enjoys reading comic books and thinks the best things about school are the good selection of books, the playground is very wide, and there are a lot of activities. The best thing that ever happened to Jason was when he went to New York for sightseeing. Personal goals he is striving for are to build a flying car, collect more cards than his friends, and he would like to be an author when he grows up.

Grace is 11 years old and has three brothers and sisters. Grace enjoys reading and thinks the best things about school are the field trips and assemblies, each student receives a set of supplies, and the teachers care about the students. If Grace could build one thing, it would be a library filled with every book in the world. Three personal goals Grace is striving are to get good grades, reading as many books as she can, and helping others in need.

Temple City Kiwanis Club is pleased each week to recognize outstanding students and their teachers from Cloverly, Emperor, Longden, and the Community Learning Center.
