

Kiwanis Honors CLC Students Robert Yankowsky and Michelle Cabrera

Kiwanis Club of Temple City was pleased to have honored two outstanding students from the Community Learning Center at their meeting, February 15, 2005. Pictured with the proud students is Instructional Aide, Mrs. Alicia Maldonado and the students teacher, Mr. Ron Bridges.

Robert is 15 years old and enjoys video games, his friends, and sleeping. Robert said, "the best thing about school is the opportunity to make a lot of friends". The best thing that ever happened was graduating from Junior High. Personal goals Robert is striving for are to build the world's biggest cheez-it, to graduate from CLC, get a high grade point average, and to go to college.

Michelle is 15 years old and has a brother and sister. Michelle enjoys music, dancing and shopping. The best things about school are her friends, getting an education, and the attention the staff gives. The best thing that ever happened to Michelle was meeting her best friend, Kallie Westfalls. Three personal goals Michelle is striving for are to get a 4.0 grade point average, to go back to Temple City High School, and to graduate.
