

Kiwanis Honors Longden Students Christine Nissim, Alice Leung, and Eric Mora

Kiwanis Club of Temple City was pleased to have honored three outstanding students from Longden Elementary School at their meeting, February 22, 2005. Pictured with the proud students is their teacher, Miss Samantha Jennings. This is Miss Jennings' first year of teaching at Longden and she loves it!

Christine is 12 years old and has a 1 year old brother. Christine enjoys taking digital photographs and thinks the best things about school are the good food, the big school, and the kids in the classroom. If she could change one thing, it would be not to have the same thing at lunch almost every day. Personal goals she is striving for are to build a restaurant, get good grades, have lots of money so she could buy pets at the shelter, read lots of magazines and books.

Alice is 11 years old has a younger brother. Alice enjoys her friends, reading, art, biking, swimming, school, talking, computers, ice skating, and exercising. The best things about school are art, P.E., and English. The best thing that ever happened to Alice was going to fun places like Knott's and receiving gifts. Three personal goals she is striving for are to be a fashion designer, share with others, and be rich.

Eric is 11 years old has two older brothers. Eric enjoys soccer, football, and boxing. The best things about school are the teachers, and it's a safe place to learn. If Eric could change one thing, it would be to grow taller. If he could build one thing, it would be a World Cup Soccer Stadium. Three personal goals he is striving for are to become a doctor, pro soccer player, and pro boxer.
