

Kiwanis Honors Longden Students Trevor Goin, Royce Livezey, Elizabeth Lew, and Marlin Varney

Kiwanis Club of Temple City was pleased to have honored four outstanding students from Longden Elementary School at their meeting, March 22, 2005. Pictured with the proud students is Assistant Principal, Miss Tiffany Haeberlein. This is Miss Haeberlein's first year at Longden and she enjoys being there.

Trevor is 11 years old, has 3 brothers and is in Mr. Ferguson's 6th grade class. Trevor enjoys all sports and technology. The best things about school are the teachers, the really good food, and Student Council. The best thing that ever happened to Trevor was being picked for this award. Personal goals are to build a major league baseball stadium, no F's or D's on his report cards, to write a book, and to get a good job with good pay when he is older.

Royce is 12 years old and seems to be content being the only child in his house. He is in Mr. Ferguson's 6th grade class. Royce enjoys basketball, recess, science, and history. The best thing that ever happened to Royce was when he went to Boston, Massachusetts. Trevor's personal goals are to build a house with a pool and Jacuzzi, get good grades, to read more books, and to get better at basketball.

Elizabeth is 11 years old, has two older brothers and is in Ms. Rockenbach's 6th grade class. Elizabeth enjoys art, basketball, motorsports, music, and swimming. The best things about school are the teachers, the Principal and Vice Principal. If Elizabeth could build one thing, it would be a restaurant with free food for homeless people. Three personal goals she is striving for are to become a famous fashion designer, attend U.C.L.A., and make a lot of money to support my family.

Marlin is 13 years old, has a older sister, and is in Ms. Rockenbach's 6th grade class. Marlin enjoys airsoft guns, basketball, and football. The best things about school are seeing his friends, learning new things, and meeting new people. When asked what he would like to build, he said, "not sure what, but something that would change mankind for the better, and I'll be remembered in history". Three personal goals Marlin is striving for are to be rich, really smart, and to get through school successfully.
