

Kiwanis Honors Community Learning Center Students
Erin Hills and Robert Burns
September 19, 2006

Kiwanis Club of Temple City was pleased to have honored two outstanding students from the Community Learning Center at their meeting on September 19, 2006. Pictured with the proud students are CLC teachers Reggie Rios and Andrew Jahan.

Erin is 17 years old and has two older sisters. Erin's hobbies and interests are tattoos and piercing's. Erin said, "the best things about school are it is easy to make friends, you get as much work done as you want, and it is laid back." The best thing that ever happened to Erin was working with a Band Tour. Erin has goals of graduating early, build a huge donut for a donut shop, attend Citrus College for Cosmetology, and become a special effects make-up artist.

Robert is 17 years old, has a younger sister, and enjoys camping, motorcycle riding and playing Xbox. Robert said, "the best things about school are it is easy, all my friends are here, and the teacher's are cool." The best things that have happened to Robert are his girlfriend and good friends. Personal goals Robert is striving for are to build a solar powered house, graduate, get a job, and a house.

Each week, the Temple City Kiwanis Club is pleased to recognize outstanding students and their teachers from Cloverly, Emperor, Longden, and the Community Learning Center. Kiwanis treats students and their teacher to lunch. Students receive a certificate, a letter for their parents, a bumper sticker, a gift certificate from The Hat restaurant, and a photograph of them receiving their award.

Temple City Kiwanis has been serving our community since 1939. Members are dedicated men and women who desire to make a difference in the quality of life for the youth of Temple City. Kiwanis meets at 12:00 noon each Tuesday at Sir George's Restaurant. To find out more about Kiwanis, please call Jerry Jambazian at (626) 286-2444. You can also visit their new website at www.templecitykiwanis.org.